

Studying in South Korea.

Life is very different for many young people in South Korea.

It's very important for people to go to a good college, and find a good job.

So studying is very, important!

Young people get up at about six o'clock, have breakfast with their family, and then go to school.

Schools in South Korea start at seven o'clock..

After five hours of lessons in the morning, It's time for lunch .

Most people have lunch at school.

Then there are more lessons until six o'clock..

But that's not the end !

Many young Koreans go to the library and study from about eight o'clock to eleven or twelve o'clock,

When the libraries close.

At that time, they go home in a special minibus.

Most students don't go to bed before one or two o'clock, and then the next day, after just four or five hours of sleep, It's time to get up again.
